CALL FOR PAPERS

MARION DEAN ROSS/PACIFIC NORTHWEST CHAPTER of SOCIETY OF ARCHITECTURAL HISTORIANS>>

ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the
MARION DEAN ROSS/PACIFIC NORTHWEST CHAPTER SOCIETY OF ARCHITECTURAL HISTORIANS

SANDPOINT, COEUR D'ALENE, and WALLACE, IDAHO – JUNE 21-23rd, 2019

Extraction and Recreation: Sensitive Redevelopments and Faustian Bargains

Abstracts or proposals for papers or work-in-progress reports are welcomed for the 2019 gathering of the Marion Dean Ross/Pacific Northwest Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians. The conference will be held in the Idaho resort towns of Sandpoint, Coeur d' Alene, and Wallace. This year's theme is:

Extraction and Recreation: Sensitive Redevelopments and Faustian Bargains

Abstract submissions may address pre-industrial and industrial sites that have been transformed into areas for recreation and/or tourism. Although these developments have provided an economic and cultural boon for many communities, some have resulted in an economic and cultural bust for those that may have once flourished. Submissions that include a critical analysis of sensitive and/or insensitive revitalization efforts will be given priority.

Other proposals addressing any aspect of the built environment from any time period or place are also welcome. All abstracts adhering to the submission guidelines listed below will be given a fair assessment. Graduate students and advanced undergraduates in fields related to the built environment are particularly welcome to present at the conference. Membership in the Marion Dean Ross/Pacific Northwest Chapter is not required for abstract submission, although everyone chosen for presentation will be asked to contribute chapter dues ($15.00) for the current year.

Submission Guidelines: The abstract should be between 300-500 words, and fit onto a single-sided page. On a separate single page, include the author's name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address with a brief, 100-200 word biography or one-page curriculum vitae. Abstracts are due on or before March 10, 2019 (send to sahmdr2017@gmail.com), and authors of papers chosen for presentation will be notified by April 15, 2019. Please indicate in your abstract whether you intend to deliver a twenty-minute paper or a ten-minute work-in-progress report. Ideally, the papers or work-in-progress reports delivered at the conference should be analytical or critical in nature, rather than descriptive, and aim to make an original contribution. Completed manuscripts of accepted papers must be submitted in full to conference organizers by May 30, 2019.

Authors shall retain copyright, but shall agree that the paper will be deposited for scholarly use in the chapter archive in the Department of Special Collections and University Archives, at the University of Oregon as Microsoft Word attachments with the subject heading SAH conference 2019 on or before June 30, 2019, to Amanda Clark: sahmdr2017@gmail.com
